

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Islington

Privacy Policy

In this agreement, "the Church" or "St. Andrew's" means St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Islington.

St. Andrew's collects personal information on the members and adherents of the Church for use in the following purposes:

Telephone directory (containing names, addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses of all members and adherents). This telephone directory is published and given to members and adherents (with the restriction the information contained in this publication can only be used by the person/family to whom it is given, and the information in this directory cannot be lent, or sold to another party).

Roll List – showing active members.

Recording of donations – to allow for tax receipts at the end of the calendar year.

Presbyterian Record – names and addresses of each member family are shared with the Presbyterian Record, and St. Andrew's purchases a subscription to this publication on behalf of the member family.

Express permission – by being present, and participating in worship services, and other associated activities, including but not limited to Christmas and Palm Sunday cantatas, congregational picnics, family retreats and other outings, fellowship and study activities, participants agree to release the Trustees, Session and Board of Managers from any liability, if and when, photographs are taken and / or recording posted on the St. Andrew's PC website (www.standrewsislington.org)

Communication – from time to time, St. Andrew's will send out to its members and/or adherents information on Church events or related issues, via mail or email.

This personal information is not shared outside the Church, unless noted above.

You (the member or adherent) have the right to have your personal information withheld for any of the usage purposes listed above. If you wish to withhold consent, you may do so at any time by contacting the Church Secretary or Clerk of Session.